Mr. BARLOW had leave to withdraw the petition.

Also, against the petition of sundry citizens of Daviess county; concurred in.

Mr. WALL had leave to withdraw the petition.

Also, a bill to amend the law regulating the taxation of costs in appeal cases; read.

Mr. WINTERSMITH said, that the law as it now stood, compelled the defendant to pay the costs of suit, if on appeal from a Justice, the judgment of the Justice was not entirely reversed and a judgment given for the defendant. Thus, if A. obtain a judgment for $50 against B. before a Justice, and B. appeals, and A. obtains a judgment for $1 in the Circuit Court, A. is still entitled to a judgment for his costs of the whole suit. This is clearly wrong. B. succeeds in the object of the appeal, and perhaps pays more than $50 costs in so doing. This bill proposes if the judgment for $50 be reduced in the Circuit Court 20 per cent.—to $40 or less, then the defendant shall recover his costs upon the appeal, but not upon the suit. He thought this nothing but just and right, and therefore moved to dispense with the further readings of the bill, which was carried, and the bill passed.

Also, a bill to amend the law concerning processions lands, and to perpetuate testimony, &c.; read and passed.

Also, a bill concerning the tenth and eleventh Judicial Districts; read and re-committed.

Also, a bill to allow an additional Justice of the Peace to Morgan county; read, and on motion of Mr. WILLIAMS, was amended so as to have him reside in a particular portion of the county.

Mr. T. D. BROWN offered to amend, by adding an additional Justice for Hardin county, &c.; adopted.

Mr. BOWEN offered to amend, by adding an additional Justice for the county of Henry, &c.; adopted, and then the bill was passed.

Also, a substitute for the bill, for the benefit of Edward Darnaby—so as to make it a bill for the benefit of Ministers of the Gospel—allowing them to pass toll gates free when going to preach the Gospel; adopted, and the bill passed.

Also, a bill for the benefit of Henry Black, Surveyor of Ballard county; read and passed.

Also, asked to be discharged from the further consideration of a bill to enlarge the powers of the Trustees of the town of Louisa; granted, and the bill was properly referred.

Also, a bill concerning conveyances; read and passed.

Also, a bill to amend the law in relation to proceedings in criminal cases—allowing the Attorney for the Commonwealth to reject peremptorily six Jurors; read.

Mr. COMBS was in favor of the bill; for as long as the law remained as it now was, it would be impossible to convict a criminal who had money with which to purchase the attention of his intimate associates as bystanders, to be summoned after the panels were exhausted.

He was in favor of whipping for stealing, and hanging for murder; but under the present jury law, it was almost impossible to convict those who are wealthy, and avail themselves of their wealth to procure packed juries. The criminal had the right to challenge peremptorily twenty jurors, and to give the Commonwealth the right to challenge six, or even three, would be the means of preventing the packing of juries, and the ends of justice might be arrived at, and the blood which so frequently flows in our streets, might be averted.

Mr. TOWLES was opposed to the bill on constitutional, and other grounds; he discussed it at some length. His remarks will be given hereafter.

Mr. MOORE did not think this bill conflicted at all with the Constitution. The "ancient mode of trial by jury" was still preserved, and this bill did not affect the mode at all; it was merely an incidental matter, and so far as the policy of passing this law was concerned, he had no doubt of its correctness. The Commonwealth was laboring under great disadvantages under the present law, and which, if this bill was passed, would be obviated, and place the Commonwealth's Attorney in such a position, as would enable him to put in execution the law against criminals. He discussed the matter at some length.

Mr. WILKINS advocated the bill at length—his remarks will be given hereafter.

Mr. HARRIS said notwithstanding it was the ardent wish of the gentleman from Warren, (Mr. Wilkins,) that this bill should be allowed to pass without a dissenting voice, yet he felt it to be his duty to differ with him and enter his protest to its passage. He thought the bill was in conflict with the constitution, which guaranteed to every man the right of trial by jury according to the ancient mode. The Commonwealth had her Attorneys for prosecuting the criminals, and after they had acted in that capacity for six months, they generally believed that every man indicted was surely guilty, and they used every means possible for their conviction; and under such circumstances, he thought it unnecessary and wrong to pass this bill and he hoped it would not pass. He discussed the bill at some length.

A message was received from the Governor, announcing his approval of certain bills, &c.

Mr. COMBS thought it better for the Legislature to do what seemed to them politic and right, and leave to the courts to decide upon the constitutionality of the law. He did not think it unconstitutional, for it did not affect at all the "ancient mode of trial by jury." There was not a man who had been in a court of justice during the trial of a criminal, but had seen the great disadvantage under which the Commonwealth Attorney labored in consequence of the introduction of jurors who were pledged to clear the criminal, but who could not be kept from the jury box without a peremptory challenge which this bill proposed to give. He hoped it would pass.

Mr. MOORE moved to dispense with the further readings of the bill; carried.

The Yeas and Nays being called on the final passage of the bill it was passed 74 to 9.

Orders of the Day.

Mr. SPEED moved to take out of the orders of the day the Senate bills, that they might be appropriately referred; carried.

And sundry Senate bills heretofore noticed in Senate reports, and House bills amended by the Senate and heretofore noticed in our reports, were severally taken up and properly disposed of.

Mr. SMITH was charged with a message to the Senate to ask leave to withdraw the joint resolution requesting the Governor to communicate to this House whether any slight was intended by his omission to mention the Kentucky Cavalry in his annual message, &c.

Mr. WINTERSMITH moved to discharge the committee of the Whole from the further consideration of the bill to modify the act of 1833, in relation to the importation of slaves; carried, and on motion of Mr. HAGGARD, it was made the special order for Thursday next, at 12 o'clock.

Mr. WINTERSMITH moved to re-consider the vote upon the resolution requesting the Governor to communicate whether he intended any slight by his omission to mention the Cavalry in his annual message, &c.

Mr. WINTERSMITH said he thought the resolution was not a proper one to be passed by this House. It was calling the Governor to an account for his acts, which this House had no right to do.

Mr. T. D. BROWN was of the same opinion of his colleague, (Mr. W.) and it was for the purpose of expressing such an opinion that he attempted to obtain the floor at the time the resolution was adopted, but he was not allowed the privilege of giving his views at that time. He thought that this House had no right to call the Governor to an account for what he had said or neglected to say, and that the resolution was particularly uncourteous and uncalled for. He did not know that the Governor had communicated any thing to this House upon the subject. He was satisfied that no such communication had been officially made. He hoped it would be reconsidered.

Mr. COLLINS voted for the resolution, only because he understood at the time, that it was the wish of the Governor to have it adopted, to give him an opportunity of making an explanation, &c.

Mr. SMITH said he was informed by the Assistant Secretary of State, at the time he offered the resolution, that it was the wish of the Governor to have it adopted, and that the Governor had seen and approved it; but he was now informed, that the young Assistant Secretary of State, had taken it upon himself to act as Governor of this Commonwealth. He never should have offered the resolution upon any other consideration, and he deemed it due to himself and to this House, to make this statement.

The motion to re-consider was then carried; the resolution was withdrawn, and the vote by which the substitute was adopted was rescinded, when

Mr. WINTERSMITH moved to refer the original resolution and the several amendments, to a Select Committee; carried.

A bill to amend in part and repeal in part, the law further to protect the rights of married women.

Mr. HAGGARD said, having introduced this bill, he felt himself called upon to explain to the House, the reasons why it should be passed. He was a member of this House two years ago, when the present law was passed, and he voted against it, because he believed it unjust and unequal, and that it made most invidious distinctions. He believed the title to be a misnomer, as it did not protect the rights of all married women. It protected one class to the exclusion of another and larger class. He believed the present law tended to build up an aristocracy, by entailing a certain kind of property.

By the present law, the property of the wife, if it be in slaves and land, cannot be taken for the payment of the husband's debts; but if it be in any other property, it is liable for their payment, and may be taken therefor. He was opposed to that kind of invidious distinction; he would exempt all property of the wife from liability for the husband's debts contracted before marriage, but that the wife's property should be liable for the payment of debts contracted subsequent to the marriage; he would not make a distinction in the kind of property, for he saw no good reason for it; he would make a law that would operate equally upon all.

He thought the present law objectionable, for another reason. It made the wife's property liable for debts contracted after marriage, for necessities, and those only. What the husband might consider necessities, might perhaps be thought by the wife unnecessary, and a jury might differ from both; it was a term that would engender litigation, and lead to many evil results. He advocated the bill at length.

Mr. HARDY moved to commit to the Judiciary committee; carried.

And then the House adjourned.

For the Commonwealth.

THE ONLY REMEDY!—HART'S VEGETABLE EXTRACT.

Is an invaluable remedy for Epileptic Fits, or Falling Sickness, Convulsions, Spasms, &c. It is well known, that from time immemorial, Physicians have pronounced Epileptic Fits incurable. It has baffled all their skill, and the boasted power of all medicine, and consequently thousands have suffered through a miserable existence, and lastly yielded up their lives to the most cruel of diseases. Physicians of every age have pronounced this disease incurable. The proprietors of the Vegetable Extract, however, feel no delicacy in saying, that it can be cured. They would, therefore, respectfully invite Physicians and others who are interested, to examine the testimonial which is here offered. If it deceives, let it be exposed; but if it is true, then in the name of humanity, no longer let it be said that Epilepsy is incurable.

HART'S VEGETABLE EXTRACT.

For sixteen years has been tested by many persons who have suffered with this dreadful disease, and in every case where it has had a fair trial, has effected a permanent cure. Col. Denlow, of Yonkers, New York, states that his daughter has been afflicted with this most cruel of diseases, and has been cured by the use of the Vegetable Extract. Mrs. J. Bradley, 115, Orchard street, New York, states that she has been subject to Fits for many years, and has been restored to perfect health by the use of every other means (and failed) by the use of the Vegetable Extract.

Dr. Charles A. Brown, of Dover, Russell Co., Alabama, who is one of the best Physicians in the State, says that he has been cured by the use of the Vegetable Extract, and that he unhesitatingly prescribes it in every case of Epilepsy which comes under his knowledge.

Curtis G. Mayberry, Esq., formerly Postmaster at Lime Mills, Crawford Co., Pa., now living in Erie Co., Pa., states that he has for many years past been afflicted with Fits, and he is now happy to state that by a persevering use of Dr. Hart's Vegetable Extract for a few months, has restored him to sound health, being entirely freed from that worst of all diseases.

FITS OF 27 YEARS AND SIX MONTHS CURED BY THE USE OF THIS TRULY WONDERFUL MEDICINE!

Read the following remarkable case of the son of William Secore, Esq., of Philadelphia, afflicted with Epileptic Fits 27 years and 6 months. After traveling through England, Scotland, Germany and France, consulting the most eminent Physicians, and expending for medicine, medical treatment and advice, three thousand dollars, returned with his son to this country in November last, without receiving any benefit whatever, and was cured by means of Hart's Vegetable Extract.

Mr. Wm. Secore's Letter to Doctors Evans & Hart.—I have spent over three thousand dollars for medicine and medical attendance. I was advised to take a tour to Europe, and I did so. I first visited England, and consulted the most eminent Physicians in respect to his case. They examined him and prescribed accordingly. I remained there three months without receiving any change for the better, which cost me about two hundred and fifty dollars, pocketed by the physicians, and the most I received was their opinion that my son's case was hopeless, and I received incurable. I accordingly left England, and traveled through Scotland, Germany and France, and returned home in the month of November last, with my son as far from being cured as when I left. I saw your advertisement in one of the New York papers, and concluded to try Hart's Vegetable Extract, seeing your statements and reports of cures, some of twenty and thirty years' standing, and can assure you I am not sorry I did so, as by the use of Hart's Vegetable Extract alone, he was restored to perfect health. His reason, which was so long as to afflict him for his disease, is entirely restored, with the prospect now before him, of life, health and usefulness. He is now 28 years of age, and 27 years and 6 months of this time has been afflicted with this most dreadful of diseases; but thank God, he is now enjoying good health.

Now, gentlemen, faith without works I don't believe in. To say that I will be ever grateful to you is one thing, and as I here enclose you one hundred dollars, I have no doubt but that you will think this another, and quite a different thing. The debt of gratitude I still owe you, but please accept this amount as interest on the debt in advance. Yours, very respectfully, (Signed) WILLIAM SECORE.

TESTIMONY UPON TESTIMONY.

In reference to the almost miraculous efficacy of this truly wonderful medicine, read the following letter from Doctor W. L. Monroe, of Guilford, Ohio, one of the most eminent Physicians in that State.

Guilford, Ohio, August 17th, 1846.

Brother laborer in the cause of humanity: Dear Sir.—It is with no small degree of pleasure that I am enabled to announce to you the complete triumph of your vegetable medicine in cases of Epilepsy. I have prescribed it in four instances in this vicinity, and it has been highly successful in all. The fourth one is rapidly improving, and in possession of perfect recovery. I am not in the habit of prescribing or recommending Patent Medicines, but when I see an article which promises so much for the relief of suffering humanity, I feel it my duty to recommend it; and I have no hesitation in saying that as soon as the Faculty are fully acquainted with the real merit of your medicine, they will close their eyes against prejudice and lead you a helping hand.

I subscribe myself, yours, sincerely, W. L. MONROE, M.D.

To Dr. S. Hart, New York.

Bacon College.

THE Trustees of BACON COLLEGE take pleasure in announcing to the public, that the sum of $11,000 has been raised, by voluntary subscriptions, to liquidate the debt due by said institution; that the Institution may now be regarded as free from all its embarrassments, and in possession of property necessary to its usefulness, which has cost about $30,000, besides a nucleus for an endowment, consisting of near $5,000 in Northern Bank Stock, $2,000 in Road Stock, donated by individuals, and from $7,000 to $8,000 in subscriptions, annually falling due.

They avail themselves of this occasion to tender to the friends and patrons of the Institution their grateful acknowledgments for the timely aid and liberality and philanthropy have afforded, and which has been the means of saving from entire loss, an institution which has already done so much to advance the standard of Literature and Science, and to confer their benefits upon many, some of whom are meritorious and deserving, but unable, otherwise, to prepare themselves for future usefulness in an elevated sphere.

They take this occasion to say, that the doors of this Institution have never been closed against the poor, because of their poverty. They sincerely hope that no necessity may ever exist to compel a different course.

We solicit for it the continued aid of all its friends. Send up your young men, and entrust them to our care. We will do what we can, so far as to furnish them with necessary Machinery, except Books. LIFE INSURANCE.

NAUTILUS (MUTUAL LIFE) INSURANCE COMPANY,

No. 29, WALL STREET, NEW YORK.

THIS Company, which confines its business exclusively to Life Insurance, has now been in operation two years and a half, during which period it has issued 153 policies, and has paid to the policy holders, in cash, the sum of $1,000,000. The policy holders have been less than $18,000—leaving an accumulation of about $85,000 on hand, beyond the payment of claims and expenses. This, added to the original guaranty capital of $50,000, places the security of the Company on a basis as solid as no longer to admit of a rational doubt.

All its profits accrue to the credit of the policy holders, and are divided annually among them, whether the policy be issued for a limited period or for the whole term of life. The policy holders are in the character of any other Mutual Life Insurance Company incorporated by this State.

Two dividends of 30 per cent. each, on the amount of premiums received, in accordance with the provisions of the charter, have been declared, and are credited to the accounts of the assured, and for which scrip certificates will be issued, to the holders thereof, in cash, or in kind, at the option of the Company.
